BUSINESS OPERATIONS

The Company is a holding company and the Group is principally engaged in the operation of cultural and entertainment comprehensive services platform and provision of loan and financing services.

As disclosed in the Annual Report, the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic and the implementation of a four-month long lock-down in Shanghai in 2022 had curtailed almost all consumerist businesses thereat, thus turning what was once a boom into a bust. Suffice it to say, the subsequent economic downturn in the PRC has hit hard in many walks of trade and the Group is no exception, in particular its loan business. In the meantime, the economic downturn in the PRC has yet to show any marked abatement and, as such, the Group's cultural and entertainment businesses are continually being held back. Some of the Group's NOD Union members, customers in brand management and/or long-term relationship customers have either temporarily suspended or chosen to close down their operations. In spite of the revocation of the COVID-19 social distancing measures, the economic scars lasting from it have impacted consumerist confidence by far. Even though the lockdown is now over, the continual lackluster consumerism did not bring any positive impact to the Group during the second half of 2023. The Group reckons that it is going to take time to make consumption habits finally rekindle themselves.

In November 2023, the Group, in tandem with HKSARG's endeavour to revive the local consumerist economy, commenced new clubbing operations in Central, Hong Kong, targeting customers on entertainment and wine. It is expected that the new operation will contribute to the revenue of the Group in the first half of this fiscal year.

Save as disclosed in this announcement, the Group is carrying on its business operations as usual in all material respects notwithstanding the suspension of trading in the shares of the Company.

UPDATE ON RESUMPTION PROGRESS

As disclosed in the Annual Results Announcement and the Annual Report, the Independent Auditor did not express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements of the Group for the year ended 30 June 2023 ("Disclaimer of Opinion"). The basis for the Disclaimer of Opinion being (a) Material Uncertainties Relating to Going Concern; (b) Recoverability of Factoring Receivables, Finance Lease Receivables and Trade Receivables; and (c) Receipts from Several Independent Third Parties, the details of which are set out on pages 144 to 150 of the Annual Report.

As set out under the Resumption Guidance, the Company shall (i) address the issues giving rise to the Disclaimer of Opinion, provide comfort that the Disclaimer of Opinion would no longer be required and disclose sufficient information to enable investors to make an informed assessment of its financial positions as required under Rule 13.50A of the Listing Rules; (ii) conduct an independent internal control review and demonstrate that the Company has in place adequate internal controls and procedures to meet its obligations under the Listing Rules; and (iii) inform the market of all material information for the Company's shareholders and investors to appraise the Company's position; (iv) demonstrate the Company's compliance with Rule 13.24 of the Listing Rules; and (v) re-comply with Rule 13.92 of the Listing Rules.

With respect to the above, the Company wishes to provide updates as follows:

- (a) the Company is closely working with the PRC finance team and communicating with the Independent Auditor to address the issues giving rise to the Disclaimer of Opinion;
- (b) in addition, the Company has appointed an independent professional law firm in the PRC, to conduct an independent review and to assess the possibility and viability of taking legal proceedings against the debtors for recovering the outstanding debts. Should the legal proceedings be successful and the Company has collected the debts from the customers, the uncertainties on going concern can then be improved. Meanwhile, the Company is also seeking a new loan facility line from banks and/or other financial institutions for the purpose of sustaining the existing operations;
- (c) the Company has also engaged an independent professional law firm in the PRC to issue an independent legal opinion in relation to the Receipts from Several Independent Third Parties. The draft legal opinion shall be reviewed and assessed by the Independent Auditor, and should the Independent Auditor be satisfied that the arrangements of third party settlement are in compliance with relevant PRC laws, the qualification may be removed in the next audit;
- (d) the Company has engaged BakerTilly Corporate Governance Limited (“BTCG”) as an independent professional firm for conducting an independent internal control review. The Company has been working closely with BTCG since its engagement, and as at the date of this announcement, its review work has yet been completed. The expected timeframe to announce the findings of the relevant independent internal control review, to assess and announce the impact on the Group’s business operations and financial position (if any), and to take remedial action is subject to further assessment by the Board, to which the Board will endeavour to do as soon as practicable; and
- (e) the Company is currently identifying suitable candidate(s) for the Company so as to fulfil and satisfy the requirement under Rule 13.92 of the Listing Rules regarding the diversity of Board members in respect of gender.

The Board will use its best endeavours to resolve all the issues pertaining to the Disclaimer of Opinion as soon as possible. However, since resolving all the issues pertaining to the Disclaimer of Opinion would require collective effort from the Company, the Independent Auditor and other external professional parties, the Board is yet to determine the timeline for fulfillment of the requirements contained in the Resumption Guidance.

The Company will publish further announcement(s) to keep the Company’s shareholders and potential investors informed of the status and development of the Company as and when appropriate, as well as announce quarterly updates pursuant to Rule 13.24A of the Listing Rules.
